NOTICE OF VACANCY

SECONDED NATIONAL EXPERTS

1. Directorate general	:	DG INFSO
- Directorate	:	A
- Unit	:	A3
- Place	:	Brussels
- Head of Unit	:	Michael Niebel
- Date of beginning	:	March 2009

2. Main areas of responsibility :

Unit A3 develops Information and Network Security Policies in close cooperation with other Commission services and with the European Network and Information Security Agency (ENISA).

Main tasks (under the supervision of a Commission official):

- Define, implement and follow up the policy developments in the area of information security (including Internet). Ensure coherence in the implementation of the EC's policy in this area,
- Participate in international fora (such as OECD, ISO, …) as observer and prepare position papers,
- Brief management on policy matters in particular concerning security related ICT opportunities and threats, in particular relevant to RFID and Trusted Computing
- Draft briefing notes and speeches on specific policy issues,
- Organise external events (such as expert meetings, workshops,…),
- Contribute to the development of the communication on security strategy,
- Contribute to communications, white and green papers on security related issues organise and conduct internal events (such as reflection group meetings, workshops, …),
- Contribute to inter-service consultations including active participation in inter-service meetings,
- Perform analysis of ICT from social, economical and especially technical perspectives against the background of its security functionality,
- Propose policy options in the view of achieving EC objectives,
- Compile MS and/ or experts comments and integrate them into working papers or official documents.

3. Main qualifications :

We are looking for an engineer with a professional experience of 5 years in the Network and Information Security field. Experience in R&D and/or public administration would be an asset.

4. Working Languages :

The SNE must have a knowledge of two Community language. For the execution of these duties the knowledge of English is required. The knowledge of French is recommended.