

BRIGITTE ACOCA

Brigitte joined the OECD's Secretariat to the Committee on Consumer Policy in 2005. As a consumer policy analyst, she has been actively involved in the development and legal analysis of OECD instruments pertaining to consumer dispute resolution and redress, the economics of consumer policy, the protection of consumers against fraudulent commercial practices, online identity theft, mobile commerce, e-commerce, and the empowerment of consumers in communication services.

Prior to joining the OECD, Brigitte practiced EC competition law in international law firms in Brussels. She graduated from the Legal Master in European Community Law of the College of Europe in Bruges, Belgium (LLM - 2001), and from a postgraduate degree in EU and private international law (University Paris II Panthéon Assas - 1999). She is a member of the Paris Bar (2000).