

DANYEL MOLENAAR

Danyel Molenaar, 37, head internet security at the Dutch independent opst and telecommunication authority (OPTA) has been involved in law enforcement in the field of internet security since 2004, when OPTA initiated its enforcement of the ban on spam in the Netherlands. DAnyel has been the manger of this unit from the beginning. Lawyer from origin, Danyel has used his legal expertise to find new and creative ways to fight cybercrime. The Netherlands sees it at their responsibility to be very active in the field of internet and cybersecurity, because it's one of the leading nations in broadband internet in the world. Because it is a global issue, OPTA invests a lot in international cooperation and is always seeking for partners in the struggle for a safer internet around the world.
