

LYNNE FANCY

Is the Director General, Policy, Telemarketing, Decision and Operations at the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission (CRTC) in Canada. She has 26 years of experience in the telecommunications industry and a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Ottawa. Lynne has worked in both the private and the public sectors in a wide variety of technical and business positions. She is currently responsible for the enforcement of Canada's National Do Not Call List and the implementation of the proposed Electronic Commerce Protection Act with the CRTC.