

PEDRO VEIGA

Is a Professor of Computer Networks at University of Lisbon, President of the Portuguese Foundation for National Scientific Computation (FCCN), the organization that operates the Portuguese Research and Education Network. He is responsible for the management of the .PT TLD. Pedro Veiga is fully involved in ICANN since its creation in 1998: he was the PT delegate to the GAC – Government Advisory Board from 1998 to the beginning of 2009 and he is now delegate to ccNSO. He is the Portuguese Member of the Management Board of ENISA. He has been active in Information Society policy issues since 1996, namely in the preparation of the “Green Paper on the Information Society” in Portugal. From 2000 to 2003 he was the Manager of the Information Society Programme in Portugal. His academic area of expertise is “networks and information systems security”.