

TONI DEMETRIOU

Is the team leader and senior investigator with the Anti Spam Compliance Unit at the Department of Internal Affairs in New Zealand. Toni spent fourteen years as a serving police officer with the West Midlands Police Service in the U.K. Mainly working in the criminal investigation department he was also seconded as an investigator working on the "Operation Ore" paedophile enquiry. In February 2003 he emigrated with his family to New Zealand.

In August 2004 Toni joined the Regulation and Compliance Branch at the Department of Internal Affairs in Wellington, New Zealand. Toni worked as a senior gambling inspector regulating and investigating the gambling industry in New Zealand. In August 2007 Toni then joined the newly established Anti Spam Compliance Unit, at the Department of Internal Affairs as an investigator.

Toni was recently seconded as the team leader and senior investigator with the Anti Spam Compliance Unit at the Department of Internal Affairs. He has been involved as a member of the LAP since September 2007 coinciding with the introduction and commencement of the new Unsolicited Electronic Messages Act in New Zealand.