

UEFA CHAMPIONS LEAGUE FINAL 2014

Radio Licensing

Introduction

The 2014 UEFA Champions League Final will be played in Lisbon on 24 May at Estádio do Sport Lisboa e Benfica; this is the first time that the Portuguese capital has hosted the final of this competition since 1967.

Coverage, production and organisation of the event will likely entail intensive use of radiocommunications systems.

To prevent interference occurring between the different radiocommunications systems used to cover the final, all users of radiocommunications are required to obtain radio licences in Portugal<sup>1</sup>.

Nonetheless, there are certain situations where the use of radiocommunications systems may be exempt from licensing - these cases are detailed in Annex 4 to the National Table of Frequency Allocations (NTFA)

Radio Licence

A Radio licence is an administrative authorisation which grants the holder the right to use a radiocommunications station or network, within the scope of a radiocommunications service, in accordance with and subject to the specific terms and conditions established in the licence.

During temporary events, frequencies are allocated on a "First come, first served" basis; Licence applications should therefore be submitted in advance of the event and at least 10 days before the date on which the applicant needs the licence to become valid.

Seeing that the second legs of the semi-finals will be played on 29th and 30th April 2014, the deadline for the submission of licensing requests is 7 May 2014.

Application forms

To obtain a Portuguese radio licence, applicants should submit their requests online, directly through ANACOM's website (Online Services | Forms for electronic and interactive services).

Alternatively, applicants can complete the "Modelo 61 ANACOM" application form and send it by email to edge@anacom.pt

Fees

Usage fees are calculated using the following formula:

- Applicable annual fee x (no. of days of licence validity / 360 days).

<sup>1</sup> Under Portuguese Law (Decree-Law no. 151-A/2000, of 20 of July, as amended by Decree-Law no. 264/2009, of 28 September), a radio licence is required for the use of radiocommunications stations and networks, and entails payment of a fee; the applicable fees are established in Administrative Rule no. 296-A/2013 of 2 October. Stations which are used without the required licence can suffer interference from or cause interference to duly licensed users. Anyone who uses an unlicensed station is committing an offence under Portuguese law and will be subject to a fine.
