

FRANK ACKERMANN

Holds the position of Senior Legal Counsel at eco – Verband der deutschen Internetwirtschaft e. V., supporting the German Internet Service Provider Association to tackle illegal and harmful content online since 2003. He is a member of the board of the International Network of Internet Hotlines (INHOPE) since 2007. In 2008 he was elected Vice President of INHOPE. Since 2003, Frank is practicing law in Bonn after he graduated as a civil servant in Cologne. He has previously worked with the International Organisation for Migration (IOM) for repatriation programmes in Bosnia and Kosovo. In 1998 and 2002, Frank has spent several months in Sofia/Bulgaria, working for the Lega Interconsult law firm as well as for the Konrad-Adenauer-Foundation.

Frank studied law in Gießen and Bonn, as well as Slavic studies in Bonn.