

JEAN-CHRISTOPHE LE TOQUIN

Jean-Christophe Le Toquin is an attorney at Microsoft EMEA (Europe, Middle-East, Africa). In charge of driving the Internet Safety Enforcement efforts of the company in these three regions, he sets up partnerships with law enforcement agencies, contributes to enable an effective regulation and enforces existing legislation for a safer online environment.

Jean-Christophe Le Toquin has been the founding Executive Director of AFA, the French Internet Service Providers Association, from 1997 to 2003, and in 2000-2002 he was also vice-President and President of EuroISPA, the European Internet Service Providers Association.