

MERIJN SCHIK

Merijn Schik has a law degree of the Free University of Amsterdam. He currently works for the European Commission, Information Society and Media Directorate-General in the unit responsible for policy development and the EU regulatory framework for electronic communications. Prior, he has been working for the Netherlands Independent Postal and Telecommunications Authority (OPTA) as strategy advisor and competition regulation expert. Before joining OPTA he worked as a legal adviser for the Netherlands Ministry of Education, Culture and Science. He started his career working for the Netherlands agency for social security and unemployment (UWV).