STEVE WEBER

Steve is a Senior Investigator with the Australian Communications and Media Authority's Anti-Spam Team. Steve has been with the ACMA since 2007. He has been involved with the LAP since mid-2008.

Steve has previously worked as a Detective with the Queensland Police Service in a variety of areas including Drug Squad, Juvenile Aid Bureau and general criminal investigations. During his time with the Police, Steve worked in a range of different locations from metropolitan centres to rural and remote postings. Steve's last station with the Police was Palm Island that has held the dubious title of being named 'The Most Violent Place on Earth outside a War Zone' by the Guinness Book of Records.

Steve has also worked as a senior investigator with the Australian Commission for Law Enforcement Integrity and the Inspector General's Division of the Department of Defence.

Steve holds a Bachelors Degree in Computer Systems Engineering, a Graduate Certificate in Security, Terrorism and Counterterrorism and a Masters in Policing, Intelligence and Counterterrorism.