

SHORT BIO

Augusto Fragoso

Director-General for Information and Innovation - ANACOM

Augusto holds a degree in Computer Sciences and Management, with a postgraduate degree in Strategic Management of Information Systems, Leadership and Digital Transformation.

He has collaborated, nationally and internationally, in several companies and major projects, having in recent years developed his action in the regulatory context, at ANACOM - Autoridade Nacional de Comunicações (Portuguese NRA).

He continues to learn and add to the growing experience of more than 30 years in management, consultancy, research and teaching in the context of innovation, information systems and digital transformation.

He aims to continuously share knowledge and deliver systems based on an innovation approach, bringing true value to the person, the organization and society.