

SHORT BIO

Marc Mossé

Marc Mossé holds a DEA in public law and a DEA in European law from the Universities of Paris V and Paris I. He is a former Secretary of the Conference of Lawyers at the Council of State and the Court of Cassation.

After having been Director of Legal and Public Affairs for Microsoft France, he is currently Senior Director Government Affairs, Assistant General Counsel for MICROSOFT Europe. He is also Visiting Professor at the University of Aix-Marseille (Institute of Business Law) and teaches at Science Po.

He is President of the French In-House Counsel Association (AFJE) and a member of the Conseil National du Droit, and Deputy Mayor of Meudon in charge of innovation, smart city and European Affairs.