

SHORT BIO

Thomas Kuepper

Thomas studied Management of Information System - a combination of business studies and applied computer science. He wrote his diploma thesis in 1997-1998 about the disruptive potential of Voice over IP where he analysed the costs of transatlantic submarine cable systems. He joined Ericsson and worked for them in Germany, Sweden, Switzerland and The Netherlands from 1997 to 2004. From 2004 to 2006 he worked for Logica CMG Consulting in their Amsterdam office. He joined the Commission in 2006 and has been working in the broadband unit for 5 years where he has been able to redevelop his interest in submarine cable systems.
