

Annex 5

Network development obligations

Specific obligations	Dates	Linked companies	Remarks
Network Development Install macro base stations or outdoor small cells to allow the provision of ultra-high speed band services with a view to gigabit connectivity	Within 3 years	Companies with 50 MHz to 100 MHz in 3.6 GHz
Install, across the entire country, 917 to 1832 macro base stations or 9170 to 18,320 outdoor small cells (according to the amount of spectrum held), or a combination of both.
Install 1 macro base station or 10 outdoor small cells in each low-density municipality, in each municipality of the Azores and Madeira, and in each municipality with more than 50,000 inhabitants (except for those of low density and those in the Azores and Madeira)
Install macro base stations or outdoor small cells, when requested		Companies with 50 MHz to 100 MHz in 3.6 GHz	– Requested by hospitals and health centres; universities, other higher education establishments and other entities from the national science and technology system; ports and airports; military facilities; managing or promotional entities of business parks, industrial parks or business concentration areas (when requested within two years following the issuance of frequency usage rights).