

JOSÉ PEDRO BORREGO

BIBLIOGRAPHIC NOTE

- Degree and Integrated Master in Electronic Engineering and Telecommunications from Universidade de Aveiro. Title of Master Dissertation: "Study of the Impact of Non-Linear Distortion On The Management of the Radio Spectrum".

- Post-Graduation in "Communication Networks" and "Mobile Communications" from Universidade de Aveiro.

- He is currently senior technician at ICP-Autoridade Nacional de Comunicações (ICP-ANACOM), performing his functions in the Spectrum Management Directorate in the Spectrum Monitoring and Control Centre. He also holds the position of Chairman of "Committee E – Electromagnetic Noise and Interference" of the Portuguese Committee of URSI (International Union of Radio Science)

- Previously he was a Grant-holder Researcher in the Broadband Systems Group of the Electronics and Telecommunications Department of Universidade de Aveiro, having taken part in various European Commission projects in respect of "IST - Information Society Technologies" and the Community Initiative "INTERREG III-B", Operational Programme: South East Europe).

- He was a Teaching Assistant at Universidade de Aveiro, where he taught the practical component of "Applications for Sciences and Engineering" and "Introduction to Fortran Programming" of the sciences and engineering degree course.

- Was chairman and Vice-chairman of the Committee of IEEE (The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers) - Universidade de Aveiro Student Branch