

Paraskevi Michou

Joined the Commission in 1992.

Since May 16th 2008 Ms MICHOU is the Head of Unit B2 "Implementation of Regulatory Framework" in DG Information Society and Media, Directorate B. From August 1st 2004 until May 15th 2008 Ms Michou was the Head of Unit B5 "Procedures related to national regulatory measures" in DG Information Society and Media, Directorate B. Prior to that and since February 2003, the activities at Unit B5 (Article 7 activities) were carried out by an 'ad hoc' Task Force, also headed by Ms Michou.

She joined Information Society DG in November 2002 as "Head of Sector" in the Policy and Regulatory Framework Unit of the Communications Services and policy Directory. In the Commission she previously worked in DG Enterprise and DG Internal Market.

Prior to joining the Commission she occupied different positions in the private and public organisations (such as Bank of Investments, Ministry of Technology and National Economy, ICL Hellas) in Athens.

She graduated from Athens University where she studied Law and Economics. She then obtained a Masters Degree in Computer Science from Imperial College, London.